Introducing David Morand

This week I asked David Morand, our seminarian intern, to share a little bit about himself in the bulletin article. We are blessed by his presence and hopefully you get to know him over the coming year. Also, we are releasing the 2023-2024 End-of-Year Financial Report. The report is available by the doors of our Churches. Have a blessed week.

Fr. Sean Wilson

Hello, my name is David Morand. I am very happy to be the pastoral intern for Holy Face of Jesus Parish this year! A little bit about myself. In 2017 I lived for a summer at St. Joseph in Wapak working with Bill Steinke, back when Fr. Sean was a new priest!

I grew up in Sidney, Ohio just down the road from the little slice of heaven we have up here. My parents, Mike and Brenda, still live in Sidney on the south side of town, and are parishioners at Holy Angels. I am the youngest of 3 siblings, my sister, Sara, is the eldest and lives in Kentucky. My brother Joe, lives in Huber Heights with his wife Jenni and my painfully adorable niece, Riley Grace. I'm a big coffee fan and love to see the great shops in the communities!

This internship year for me is the 5th year out of 7 in my formation to become a priest for our Archdiocese of Cincinnati. However, it has been quite a road to get here! I am a cradle Catholic and grew up in a faithful household. I was homeschooled, up until I went to Lehman in Sidney, a fact that I am confident nobody would ever hold against me! It was around high school that I actually started falling away from my faith. I would go on to graduate from Lehman in 2010 and attend Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana, where I continued in that trend. Despite my upbringing, my faith didn't mean anything to me, it wasn't something that was my own. Other than the standard going to Sunday Mass, praying before meals and bed, I had little actual relationship with God.

I graduated in 2014 with a degree in Music Technology, which took me to Nashville, TN. Here everything would change for me. I very quickly came to meet young Catholics my age, who not only were on fire for the faith and in love with Jesus, they were joyful! I wanted that joy too. I was led to attend Sunday Mass consistently, then daily Mass, then I started praying before the Blessed Sacrament before work. Eventually I met a couple of priests that would begin me on the path to thinking seriously about seminary and priesthood. So in 2016, after hearing a more direct call from the Lord, I quit my job in Nashville and started seminary at Mount Saint Mary's in Cincinnati. After two years, I left seminary, needing time away to discern God's will for me. I worked for 3 years at a parish as the music director, and finally in 2022 I decided to return to the seminary. Two years later, I am back in Auglaize and Shelby counties, and as you all know, I couldn't ask for better priests from which to learn, so a big thanks to Fr. Sean and Fr. Mike for being willing to have an intern! Thanks to you all as well for such a warm welcome. I very much look forward to getting to know the community over the coming year. God bless you all.

David Morand, Seminarian Intern

Scammers

Please be aware that scammers send messages and impersonate Fr. Sean or Fr. Willig. They may send a text/email that says something like: "Hi, please return my text when you get it. I have a favor to ask. - Fr. Sean Wilson" "Are you available? I have a request for you to manage discreetly. - Fr. Michael Willig" If you engage with the scammer, they will likely ask for iTunes gift cards. This is not our priests! They will never ask for iTunes gift cards or send messages like this. If you're ever questioning a message, please call the parish office before responding. If you've been scammed, ignore the message (or report it as a "phishing message") and say a prayer for the scammer.
