Baptismal Preparation

A few years ago, a revised ritual for the Order of Baptism of Children was received by the Church in the United States. An introduction accompanied the text emphasizing the importance of preparation for Baptism. It states, "Preparation for Baptism and Christian instruction are of the highest concern for the People of God, that is, for the Church, which hands on and nourishes the faith received from the Apostles."

For the past few years, Lisa Fullenkamp managed Baptismal preparation. She diligently met with parents, educating them on the significance of Baptism, the responsibilities of godparents, and the Baptismal ritual. Following her retirement, Father Hoying has graciously agreed to lead our Baptismal Preparation Class. We are fortunate to have his willingness to undertake this task and share the profound meaning and significance of Baptism with the parents. His dedication to the Church's Faith will undoubtedly enhance the experience for all attendees.

Previously, Baptismal preparation occurred at various times, when convenient. Fr. Hoying prefers to have a stable rhythm to the preparation. Therefore, it will occur monthly on Sunday afternoons at Immaculate Conception. To begin the process for Baptismal preparation, you will still call the parish office.

When discussing the content of the class, we noticed how much emphasis the Church puts on preparation for Baptism, as evidenced by the quote at the beginning of this article. Baptism is a life-changing moment for both children and parents. The preparation for Baptism recognizes this importance. Therefore, all parents will be required to attend a Baptismal Preparation Class, whether this is their first child or they already have multiple children. Of course, if one parent is not in the picture, or there are other challenges, both parents won't be required to attend. Only the parent that is raising the child will be obligated to attend.

The goal isn't to make more hoops to jump through, but rather to invite all parents to experience the power of Baptism and thank God for the gift of this new child. Previously, only first-time parents were required to attend. This policy may change in the future, but for now, I am asking all parents who are presenting a child for Baptism to attend the Baptismal Preparation Class.

This adjustment doesn't affect every parishioner. Many reading this are not presenting children for Baptism. However, you can pray for all parents. Pray that they may raise their children in the love of Jesus Christ and in the power of the Holy Spirit. Parenting is a difficult task, and may our parents persevere with hope and joy.

Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. Sean Wilson

Weekly Scripture

"If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit that dwells in you...The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him."

- Romans 8:11; 16-17 (from the Second Reading for Sunday, June 8th)

Weekly Saint Quote

"Do you want to have God always in your mind? Be just as He made you to be. Do not go seeking another 'you.' Do not make yourself otherwise than He made you."

Scammers

Please be aware that scammers have been known to impersonate our priests. They may send a text/email that says something like: "Hi, please return my text when you get it. I have a favor to ask." "Are you available? I have a request for you to manage discreetly." Their text or email will probably even be signed with the name of one of our priests. If you engage with the scammer, they will likely ask for iTunes gift cards. This is not our priests! They will never send messages like this. If you're ever questioning a message, please call the parish office before responding. If you've been scammed, ignore the message (or report it as a "phishing message") and say a prayer for the scammer.
