Third Sunday of Easter - April 19th, 2026

April Round Up

A big thank-you goes out to Elaine Staton and the entire committee who organized the St. Lawrence Reverse Raffle. I was sad to miss the event this year, but I heard that it went great again this year. It was great to have the event within the Octave of Easter, when we joyfully celebrate Jesus' victory over sin, death, and darkness. Thank you to everyone who attended and volunteered for the event!

As you probably know, this weekend is moving weekend for our parish offices. Thank you to all the volunteers who helped move boxes on Saturday. We couldn't have made the move happen without you! The parish office will be closed on Monday and Tuesday so that we have a chance to unpack and get (relatively) settled. Thank you for understanding.

When you come to the parish office at St. Joseph Church, you'll no longer go to the Administration Building on the corner of Benton St. and Perry St. Now you'll enter the former school building (known as the Faith Center). You can enter from the parking lot. There are doors on the south side of the building, or the elevator which is on the southwest corner of the building.

We will have a blessing of the building and an open house, when things are more settled. This will occur on Sunday, May 31 after the 10:00am Mass. In the meantime, feel free to stop by.

Finally, the first grade through sixth grade CCD classes will be in the top floor of the building. Since there are only three weeks left of class for the year, we won't move CCD until fall. CCD at St. Joseph will remain in the temporary classrooms for the remainder of the year.

Speaking of CCD, the next two Sundays will be First Communion Masses. Next Sunday, April 26th will be First Communion at St. Lawrence and Immaculate Conception. Sunday, May 3rd will be First Communion at St. John and St. Joseph. We divide First Communion between two weekends to make things a little more manageable for our team and I like to have First Communion Masses, so they are during my weekends at these churches.

Please keep our First Communicants and their families in your prayers. This is an exciting weekend for them. Also it is a great reminder for each one of us. Most of us have received the Most Holy Eucharist hundreds or thousands of times in our lives. This can become so ordinary and regular. Oftentimes we have lost the awe and wonder at the mystery of the Eucharist. God the Father feeds us with the Body and Blood of His beloved Son! Each time we receive Holy Communion, we should act like it is our first time. We should diligently prepare and focus like our First Holy Communion.

May the Lord continue to bless you and your family during this exciting Easter Season.

Sincerely,
Fr. Sean Wilson
