HOLY FACE OF JESUS

P A R I S H

Dear Parents of Children to Be Baptized

On behalf of our parishioners, congratulations on the birth of your child and thank you for bringing your child for baptism. Every newly baptized Christian is a sign to us of God's continual love and mercy. Our merciful Father continues to draw people to the Sacred Heart of His Son, Jesus Christ.

One powerful line in the ritual of baptism comes after the lighting of the child's baptismal candle. The priest or deacon says, "Parents and godparents, this light is entrusted to you to be kept burning brightly. This child of yours has been enlightened by Christ. They are to walk always as a child of the light. May they keep the flame of faith alive in their heart. When the Lord comes, may they go out to meet Him with all the saints in the heavenly kingdom." It is a beautiful reminder of the parents' and godparents' role to constantly nourish and fan the flames of faith.

Dear Candidate for Confirmation

Confirmation is your time to witness to Jesus Christ. Like the first Apostles, you are sent out into a world starving for the Gospel message. The gift of the Holy Spirit, which will descend upon you in this sacrament, will give you the grace to share the beauty, treasure, and glory of our Catholic faith. The goal of your sponsor is to mentor your faith life and encourage you to be a witness to the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Concerning Godparents and Sponsors

One of the blessings of baptism and confirmation is that you get to select a sponsor (godparent). This person serves as a mentor in faith. More than being a friend, family member, or good person, they should be filled with the love of God and dedicated to the Catholic way of life. An ideal sponsor is someone who prays daily, worships God weekly at Mass, is generous, and will support and encourage the candidate in their faith.

For baptism there can be only one man and one woman as godparents. One of the sponsors may be a baptized non-Catholic Christian who practices their Christian faith in the denomination to which they belong. If such is the case, please provide a letter from their pastor stating they are an active member of their church.

There are two minimum requirements for a Catholic sponsor (godparent). These requirements are: 1) The Catholic must be confirmed. 2) If the Catholic is married, they must be married in the Church. There is one requirement of a non-Catholic godparent for baptism: If he or she was baptized as a Catholic and has joined another church, they have separated themselves from full communion with the Church and cannot serve in this role. These minimum requirements can't be altered or dispensed. We simply ask your honesty in these matters.

If you are struggling to decide on godparents or sponsors, implore the Lord's assistance. May the Holy Spirit reveal to you who God has planned to serve in this role.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Sean Wilson
