Father Serra Celebrates Mass at Monterey

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - July 26th, 2026

American Saint Series: St. Junipero Serra

The first two saints discussed in the American saint series were part of the missionary work of the early Jesuits to North America, who spread the faith in upstate New York and Canada. The French Jesuits planted the faith in that area. Meanwhile, the Spanish Franciscans came into the United States through Mexico, spreading the faith to the Southwest and California coast.

Junipero Serra was born on the island of Mallorca off the Mediterranean coast of Spain. After working on his parents' farm, he joined the Franciscan friars at 17 and in 1737 at age 24, he was ordained a priest. After some further studies he began teaching younger Franciscans. He was very intelligent and known as a great philosophy teacher. He was lined up for a prestigious career as a scholar.

Instead, at age 35, he applied to be a missionary and landed in Veracruz, Mexico. They had to travel to Mexico City and for this journey, Junipero Serra refused a horse, preferring to embrace the poverty of walking. He served in various missionary outposts in Mexico which involved learning the native languages, translating the Bible and Catechism into these languages, and communicating the faith to the indigenous people.

In 1767, Father Junipero Serra was appointed the President of the Missions in California, which meant he headed the group of 15 priests serving in the area.

When the Spanish decided to explore the area, they tried to dissuade Fr. Serra from going because his foot was inflamed. However, he responded, "Let us not speak of that. I have placed all my confidence in God, of whose goodness I hope that He will grant me to reach not only San Diego to raise the standard of the Holy Cross in that port, but also Monterey."

Eventually Fr. Serra founded 8 missions in California (in total, 21 were eventually founded). They were about a day's journey from each other along the California coast. He made it all the way to present day San Francisco as he founded the Mission San Francisco de Asis (yes, the city is named after the mission founded by the saint). He died in California in 1784 at age 70. He was canonized on September 23, 2015 in Washington, DC by Pope Francis and I was in attendance.

As we celebrate the 250th anniversary of our country, let us continue to be inspired by the saints and open ourselves to God's marvelous work in our own lives.

Sincerely,
Fr. Sean Wilson

The Way of Surrender - Most of us spend our lives striving—striving for success, security, and control. But beneath our restless efforts we discover a quiet truth: peace begins with surrender. The Way of Surrender invites readers to discover that truth in their own deeply personal way through the situations and circumstances of their lives.

In this profound spiritual guide, Vic Clesceri explores what it means to let go of fear, release the illusion of control, trust God's timing, and live from a place of deep interior freedom. Each short chapter is a practical meditation on how to live a surrendered life through the daily events of our lives. Surrender is not weakness, failure, or defeat. It is the highest expression of trust. It is a path to peace and the antidote for our anxious age.

Join us for this book study every other Wednesday beginning September 9th at 6:30 p.m. in the St. Joseph Adult Room. Books will be supplied and there is no cost to attend. To register, call Lori Wilson at 419.738.2115 by August 26th.

Scammers

Please be aware that scammers have been known to impersonate our priests with a text/email that says something like: "Hi, please return my text when you get it. I have a favor to ask." or "Are you available?" Their text/email will probably even be signed with the name of one of our priests. If you engage with the scammer, they will likely ask for iTunes gift cards. Our priests will never send messages like this. If you're ever questioning a message, please call the parish office before responding. Ignore the message (or report it as a "phishing message") and say a prayer for the scammer.
