Introducing Seminarian Intern, William Rannells

We take a break from our American Saint series to feature a someone who could be a canonized American saint, our seminarian William Rannells. He moved in last weekend and we are blessed to have him at our parish during this academic year. Thank you for making him feel welcome in our parish.

Fr. Sean Wilson

Greetings,

My name is William Rannells. I am 27 years old, and I am a seminarian for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. This is my sixth year of seminary formation, and I am now on my internship year, being assigned to the Holy Face of Jesus Parish. I am originally from Blanchester, Ohio, a small town in Clinton County near Wilmington. I come from a small family, with only one brother, who is my identical twin. While we never lived on a farm, we were always around them growing up. Both of my parents were truck drivers; they teamed for 13 years. My brother currently works in the Ag industry doing Crop Application. He also came to the seminary for a period of time. During college, I worked as an administrative assistant at the Wilmington Air Park.

I attended Blanchester Public School before going to Wilmington College to study Accounting. I graduated from Wilmington with a degree in Accounting and Business Administration, then immediately went to seminary to discern the Priesthood.

I was raised Catholic, and as a family we attended Sunday Mass regularly and stayed involved with the Parish. This would be either through serving at Mass or volunteering with various organizations. When I am asked, "When did you know you wanted to be a priest?", I normally answer that I don't have one particular moment, but instead a gradual growth. When I started to attend college, I was able to continue to grow in my faith and knowledge of it. Over time, I had many interactions and individual moments that seemed to direct me towards the priesthood. It was during my time in college that I decided seminary would have to be the next step. After five years in seminary and now on internship, I continue to look forward to what is to come.

I look forward to getting to know the Parish and the surrounding area.

In Christ,

William

Favorite Saints: St. Martin of Tours, St. Joseph, St. John Vianney

Some things I enjoy: Camping, Fishing, Bonfires, riding my motorcycle, the occasional video game, Cigars, and Bourbon.

Help in a Time of Grief: Miscarriage Kit

Our parish wants to ensure that those going through the pain of miscarriage have what they need to navigate the loss and journey through the grief. Miscarriage kits are available to help you honor your child. They are located at Immaculate Conception in the former rectory and are available 24/7. From the parking lot, there is a patio west of the church. Enter the door off of the patio which leads to a little breezeway. You will find the kits in a cabinet in that breezeway. If you are in an emergency situation with an immediate need, please call the emergency line and one of our priests will bring you a kit: 937-419-1137.

Congratulations on Your Baptism!

Congratulations to Natalie, daughter of Nick & Serena Reinbolt, on your recent Baptism! May you grow in love for Jesus Christ and His Church, and become the saint He is calling you to be!

Invitation to Catholic 101

A PERSONAL TESTIMONY

If you are wondering "what is Catholic 101," it is a wonderful opportunity to refresh and enrich your knowledge of the basic beliefs and tenets of our Catholic faith. I had the privilege to attend Catholic 101 in its first year and it changed my life profoundly, significantly improving my prayer life and relationship with the Lord.

The time spent in weekly sessions was also enriching by developing new friendships and becoming personally invested in the process of our OCIA candidates becoming Catholic. It brought me such joy to watch them become part of our family at the Easter Vigil.

I highly recommend Catholic 101 for anyone who has questions about the faith that they want to look at more deeply. Time spent with the whole group—the priests, Angie, candidates, sponsors and fellow Catholics wanting to dive deeper into the faith—is so rich and never wasted. All the study materials, including a Catechism and Bible, and a schedule of topics is provided at the beginning of the course for your convenience. If you are thinking of it, I highly encourage you to go at least once and see what it's about. You will not regret it.

Scammers

Please be aware that scammers have been known to impersonate our priests with a text/email that says something like: "Hi, please return my text when you get it. I have a favor to ask." or "Are you available?" Their text/email will probably even be signed with the name of one of our priests. If you engage with the scammer, they will likely ask for iTunes gift cards. Our priests will never send messages like this. If you're ever questioning a message, please call the parish office before responding. Ignore the message (or report it as a "phishing message") and say a prayer for the scammer.
