Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time - September 20th, 2026

Our Parish, Missionaries, and Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Over the summer, you’ve probably noticed a handful of advertisements for open positions in our parish. I have the joy of giving you a couple of updates. First, Domenic Belgiovane has retired as our Facilities Director for the parish. He oversaw a lot of major projects over the last couple of years, including refurbished stained-glass windows, the Faith Center Renovation, and various other projects.

Ernie Steinke, who was the custodian at St. Joseph, will now be the Head of Maintenance for all our churches. We are blessed to have him step into this role. I can already see his love and devotion to our Lord and our parish. We’ve been working to ensure that he gets to all four locations and communication is sharp. The Buildings and Grounds Committee has been (and will be) a great support in this.

A few weeks ago, Marty Manger, who regularly attends St. John in Fryburg, started as a custodian at St. Joseph. He’ll be working part-time in the mornings to ensure the buildings are clean and the rooms are set up. Welcome, Marty!

Also, this past week, Christine Mack began as our Parish Administrative Assistant. Christine regularly attends Mass at Immaculate Conception in Botkins and we are really excited to have her as part of the team. She is taking the role that has been vacant since January. We are very grateful to Valerie Christman for filling in this role since January. Valerie will help Christine get comfortable in her new role as Valerie transitions to the next chapter of her career.

Speaking of welcoming new faces, this weekend we welcome Claretian Missionaries from Africa. Each year, the Archdiocese of Cincinnati assigns missionaries to each parish to raise money and awareness for their work. This year, it worked to have the missionaries be present while Fr. Hoying is on pilgrimage in France. If you want to support the missionaries but aren’t able to at Mass, feel free to drop your donation in the collection next week. You can place it in an envelope labeled “Missionaries.”

Finally, this week, the Catholic Church celebrates our greatest missionary, Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen. Archbishop Sheen was the National Director for the Pontifical Mission Society which meant that he went all over the country raising money and awareness for foreign missionary effort.

Beyond that, he was a missionary in the United States. Through his radio program television show, speaking events, books, and countless articles, he spread the Good News of Jesus Christ. Archbishop Sheen was tireless in his sharing of the Gospel. Now he is going to be beatified on Thursday, September 24. Beatification is the third of four steps toward canonization.

The beatification Mass is taking place in St. Louis, Missouri and we’ll have a watch party to view the Mass. The Mass begins at 3:00pm and we’ll gather at 2:45pm in the St. Veronica Room, which is in the basement of the newly-renovated Faith Center at St. Joseph. Bring snacks or drinks to watch! Also, we sent out a Flocknote email this past weekend with information and links to two different documentaries about Archbishop Fulton Sheen.

Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. Sean Wilson

Scammers

Please be aware that scammers have been known to impersonate our priests with a text/email that says something like: "Hi, please return my text when you get it. I have a favor to ask." or "Are you available?" Their text/email will probably even be signed with the name of one of our priests. If you engage with the scammer, they will likely ask for iTunes gift cards. Our priests will never send messages like this. If you're ever questioning a message, please call the parish office before responding. Ignore the message (or report it as a "phishing message") and say a prayer for the scammer.
