Homecoming and American Saints: Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos

Happy Labor Day weekend to everyone. This means it is time for the annual Fryburg Homecoming! We are blessed by so many generous volunteers who help organize this wonderful event. The Fryburg Homecoming is Sunday, September 6 beginning at 4:00pm. If you haven't met our new seminarian, William Rannells, it could be a great opportunity to meet him.

Continuing the series about American Saints, today we're looking at Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos. He isn't canonized yet, but he is only one step away. Like almost every other saint that we've mentioned, he wasn't born in the United States. He was born in Germany in 1819 and was one of 12 children. As a young child, he enjoyed playing "priest" with his friends and eventually became an altar server. After his early education, he entered the seminary with the desire to be a parish priest in his diocese.

While in the seminary, he began to read about the Redemptorists priests who were missionaries in the United States, and they described the need for German-speaking priests to serve the German immigrants. He decided to join them, and in 1843, he sailed to the United States to enter the Redemptorists and continue his studies.

After being ordained in 1844, he was sent to the great state of Ohio to serve in Youngstown. Shortly after that, he was sent to Pennsylvania and worked alongside St. John Neumann, who I wrote about two weeks ago. It is amazing how many saints knew each other.

In 1860, the outgoing bishop of Philadelphia recommended that Fr. Seelos be named his successor, but Fr. Seelos pleaded with the Pope explaining that he was completely unqualified for the position. For years afterward, Fr. Seelos went all over the Northeast and Midwest preaching at various parishes. He was a persuasive preacher.

Eventually in 1866, he was assigned to a parish in Louisiana which was considered a dangerous assignment due to the rampant diseases and the climate. As he was on the train to Louisiana, he told a religious sister on the train that he would contract yellow fever in the city and die within a year. This is exactly what happened. After caring for victims of yellow fever, he contracted the disease and died in New Orleans in 1867.

Fr. Francis Xavier Seelos was beatified (the last step before canonization) by Pope John Paul II in 2000. During the beatification homily, the late pope stated, "Today, Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos invites the members of the Church to deepen their union with Christ in the sacraments of Penance and the Eucharist. Through his intercession, may all who work in the vineyard for the salvation of God's people be encouraged and strengthened in their task."

May we too work tirelessly in the vineyard of the Lord. See you at the Fryburg Homecoming!

Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. Sean Wilson

Please be aware that scammers have been known to impersonate our priests with a text/email that says something like: "Hi, please return my text when you get it. I have a favor to ask." or "Are you available?" Their text/email will probably even be signed with the name of one of our priests. If you engage with the scammer, they will likely ask for iTunes gift cards. Our priests will never send messages like this. If you're ever questioning a message, please call the parish office before responding. Ignore the message (or report it as a "phishing message") and say a prayer for the scammer.
