American Saint Series: St. Marianne Cope

I love that saints often knew each other. The saints had friends and coworkers who were also saints. Today's saint, St. Marianne Cope, was no different. Like many other American saints, she was an immigrant. Born in Germany, she emigrated to the United States when she was one year old. Her family settled in Utica, New York. Her father developed a disability and was unable to work, so she left school to work at a textile factory to support her family.

Once her siblings were able to work, she fulfilled her life-long dream and entered religious life, becoming a Sister of St. Francis in Syracuse, NY. She became a teacher and then a principal at a school dedicated to serving the children of German-speaking immigrants. After serving in schools, she helped to found two hospitals in New York before being elected Superior General of her community and answering a different calling.

In 1883, Mother Marianne Cope received a request from the king of Hawaii to care for people with leprosy. Over 50 religious communities denied his request because of the contagiousness of leprosy. Mother Marianne Cope responded by letter, stating:

I am hungry for the work and I wish with all my heart to be one of the chosen Ones, whose privilege it will be, to sacrifice themselves for the salvation of the souls of the poor Islanders... I am not afraid of any disease, hence it would be my greatest delight even to minister to the abandoned 'lepers.'

St. Marianne Cope journeyed to Hawaii with six other sisters, where they began caring for the lepers and founding hospitals. Eventually she journeyed to the island of Molokai where the more severe cases were quarantined. There she met St. Damien of Molokai, the priest we learned about 5 or 6 weeks ago. Upon his death in 1889, she took over his administrative duties to oversee the leper colony. She stood at his bedside when he passed.

Mother Marianne Cope died of natural causes in 1918, and she was buried on the grounds of the home for female lepers that her sisters staffed. Her remains have been transferred to the Cathedral in Honolulu, and she was canonized by Pope Benedict XVI in 2012. Her feast day is January 23rd.

St. Marianne Cope reminds us that the saints knew each other and that we must continue the good work that saintly men and women begin. May we join with our friends in Christ on the path toward sanctity.

Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. Sean Wilson

The survey is available online at bit.ly/icinteriorsurvey or you may scan the QR code to access the survey. Weekly Scripture

"I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not...It is I who arm you..."
- Isaiah 45:4-5 (from the First Reading for Sunday, October 18th)

Weekly Saint Quote

"It is Jesus you seek when you dream of happiness; he is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you; he is the beauty to which you are so attracted; it is he who provokes you with that thirst for fullness that will not let you settle for compromise; it is he who urges you to shed the masks of a false life; it is he who reads in your hearts your most genuine choices, the choices that others try to stifle. It is Jesus who stirs in you the desire to do something great with your lives, the will to follow an ideal, the refusal to allow yourselves to be grounded down by mediocrity, the courage to commit yourselves humbly and patiently to improving yourselves and society, making the world more human and more fraternal."
- St. John Paul II (Feast Day October 22nd)

Disciple Maker Index: 10/27-11/24

Together, Holy Face of Jesus Parish is on a journey to embrace Christ's vision for missionary discipleship so our parish can thrive and be a place for others to grow. The very first step in this process involves assessing our greatest strengths and opportunities, and that is where the Disciple Maker Index comes in! The DMI is an important tool designed to invite parishioners to reflect on their journey of discipleship, enable parish leadership to make data-drive decisions, and help parishioners grow in their faith. The 10-15 minute survey can be accessed through an online link from October 27-November 24. All responses will be confidential, and the parish will only receive information about the community as a whole.

The link will soon be available on our website and sent on Flocknote. If you haven't joined Flocknote yet, please join at holysfaceparish.flocknote.com. If you already have a profile but need to update your cell number or email address, you can do so at holysfaceparish.flocknote.com. Paper surveys will also be available for those who are unable to complete the survey online.

Scammers

Please be aware that scammers have been known to impersonate our priests with a text/email that says something like: "Hi, please return my text when you get it. I have a favor to ask." or "Are you available?" Their text/email will probably even be signed with the name of one of our priests. If you engage with the scammer, they will likely ask for iTunes gift cards. Our priests will never send messages like this. If you're ever questioning a message, please call the parish office before responding. Ignore the message (or report it as a "phishing message") and say a prayer for the scammer.
