Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time – October 25th, 2026

American Saint Series: Blessed Teresa Demjanovich (and a PSA)

As the saying goes, we learn something new every day. Today's American Saint (or blessed) is a new one for me. Before looking at the list, I had never heard of Blessed Teresa. She was born in 1901 in Bayonne, New Jersey and was the seventh child of Slovakian immigrants. She was baptized and raised in the Ruthenian Catholic Church, which is one of the 23 Eastern Catholic Churches.

Now might be an opportune time for a lesson on Eastern Catholics. You and I are members of the Roman Catholic Church (sometimes called the Latin Catholic Church, which is why Latin is the primary language for our Liturgy, but that is a different article). In the year 1054, after the western and eastern parts of the former Roman Empire had become politically, economically, and religiously distinct, the Bishop of Constantinople and the Bishop of Rome (i.e. the Pope) excommunicated each other. This was known as the Great Schism. The Church in the Middle East, Northern Africa, East Africa, Eastern Europe, and South India joined the Bishop of Constantinople in being separated from the Roman Catholic Church.

In the 16th century, some of the members of the Churches and their bishops wanted to reestablish union with the Bishop of Rome. This created the awkward scenario in which some members were reunited with the Pope, and others weren't. This continues to this day. For example, there is a Ukrainian Catholic Church, which reunited with the Pope in 1595, and additionally there is a Ukrainian Orthodox Church, which hasn't reunited with the Pope. You can receive Holy Communion at the Ukrainian Catholic Church, but not the Ukrainian Orthodox Church.

Back to Blessed Teresa Demjanovich. She received all of her sacraments and was raised in the Ruthenian Catholic Church in New Jersey. From an early age, she wanted to be a contemplative nun, but after some health issues and family trials, she decided to enter a teaching religious order. She entered the Sisters of Charity of St. Elizabeth in 1925 and taught at a couple of schools. She wrote some conferences for the younger sisters to encourage them on the path of holiness. You can buy a copy of her conferences entitled: Greater Perfection.

After a few years in the convent, she needed her tonsils removed. Unfortunately, she died in 1927 after numerous complications. She was beatified in 2014 in Newark, NJ and she is (hopefully) on the path to canonization.

Finally, I have a request for those attending St. Joseph Church. When the church was renovated in 2013, a large handicap seating section was added beneath the organ pipes on the west side. However, more people are choosing the side pews instead. If you are unable to walk forward for Holy Communion, please fill both pews in the handicap section before using other seating. This will support the effective distribution of Holy Communion and make the best use of our seating capacity.

Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. Sean Wilson

Scammers

Please be aware that scammers have been known to impersonate our priests with a text/email that says something like: "Hi, please return my text when you get it. I have a favor to ask." or "Are you available?" Their text/email will probably even be signed with the name of one of our priests. If you engage with the scammer, they will likely ask for iTunes gift cards. Our priests will never send messages like this. If you're ever questioning a message, please call the parish office before responding. Ignore the message (or report it as a "phishing message") and say a prayer for the scammer.
