American Saints: St. Katherine Drexel - And Vocations Week

The next American saint on our tour is St. Katherine Drexel, who was born in 1858 in Philadelphia. Her family was extremely wealthy, making their fortune in banking. Her uncle founded the school that eventually became Drexel University. Katherine's mother died when she was five weeks old and her father eventually married; Katherine had two sisters. The Drexel family was remarkably generous; Katherine accompanied her stepmother to distribute food and clothing to the poor every week.

When Katherine was a young adult, her father and stepmother both passed away, leaving her a large inheritance. She kept in touch with her former parish priest, who was serving as the first bishop of Nebraska. He described the challenges the natives were facing and Katherine funded schools and programs for the natives. In 1886, Katherine was in Italy and met Leo XIII. She asked the pope to send more missionaries to minister to the Native Americans. Pope Leo responded, asking her why she didn't become a missionary herself.

Pope Leo's question stuck with her, and she eventually founded her own missionary religious congregation, the Congregation of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament. The sisters dedicated themselves to serving Native Americans and African Americans. Using her family inheritance and newly organized sisters, she founded 18 schools throughout the United States. When she died in 1956, she had completely depleted her family fortune. She was canonized a saint in 2000 by Pope St. John Paul II.

Pope Leo XIII's question to her should ring in all of our ears. When we pray for vocations, we should ask: Why not me, or why not my child, or my grandchild? The invitation to generously respond to the Lord should be considered by each one of us. This upcoming week, November 1-7, is Vocations Awareness week throughout the United States. It is an opportunity for us to ask God to reveal our own vocation and encourage our young people to consider their vocation.

Additionally, I would encourage you to pray for the seminarians who have passed through our parish. Maybe you could write them a letter of support or send a "thinking of you" card. If you throw in a gas card or gift card, they would be grateful. Here are the addresses of the seminarians:

Prayer of St. Gertrude

The Prayer of St. Gertrude is one of the most famous of the prayers for souls in Purgatory. St. Gertrude the Great was a Benedictine nun and mystic who lived in the 13th century. According to tradition, our Lord promised her that 1000 souls would be released from Purgatory each time it is said devoutly.

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the Universal Church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen.

Mass of Remembrance

We will have a Mass of Remembrance on All Souls' Day (Monday, November 2nd) at 7pm at Immaculate Conception Church for those who have passed into eternal life in the past year. All are welcome to attend.

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

National Vocation Awareness Week

November 1–7, 2026 is National Vocation Awareness Week. The faithful are encouraged to pray for vocations: "Prayer for vocations is the responsibility of the entire Church. Oftentimes, we think that vocations will come from somewhere else, and yet God invites us to consider that He is raising up vocations to priesthood, consecrated life, and the permanent diaconate from within our own communities, even our own families. Our willingness to invite those within our own communities and families to consider that God may be calling them to Priesthood or consecrated life will bear abundant fruit in the Church and bring great joy and happiness to those called. We want what is best for our children; even more so does God desire their happiness." (Bishop Michael F. Burbidge, chairman of the U.S. Bishops' Committee on Clergy, Consecrated Life and Vocations.) Another way to support vocations is through financial assistance for our former seminarian intern, Deacon David Morand, who will be ordained a priest in May! If you would like to help defray expenses for his chalice, vestments, or other related expenses, you can make out a check to him and send it to:

Deacon David Morand
Mount St. Mary's Seminary
6616 Beechmont Ave.
Cincinnati, OH 45230
Please keep Deacon David and his four classmates in your prayers.

Scammers

Please be aware that scammers have been known to impersonate our priests with a text/email that says something like: "Hi, please return my text when you get it. I have a favor to ask." or "Are you available?" Their text/email will probably even be signed with the name of one of our priests. If you engage with the scammer, they will likely ask for iTunes gift cards. Our priests will never send messages like this. If you ever question a message, please call the parish office before responding. Ignore the message (or report it as a "phishing message") and say a prayer for the scammer.
